

PENTLAND TRIATHLETES

CODE OF CONDUCT

PENTLAND TRIATHLETES club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, and administrators associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with our Wellbeing Officer (mail@pentlandtriathletes.co.uk).

As a member of PENTLAND TRIATHLETES you are expected to abide by the following code of conduct:

- Race within the rules of the sport (e.g the British Triathlon Federation's rules and/or the ITF rules, as appropriate to your competition level) and respect officials and their decisions.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants. Treat everyone equally and not discriminate on the grounds of age, gender, ethnic origin, religion, pregnancy or maternity, marital status, sexual orientation or disability.
- Keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform coaches if going to be late.
- Wear suitable kit for training and events, as agreed with the coach.
- Pay any fees for membership, training or events promptly.
