

PENTLAND TRIATHLETES

WELFARE STATEMENT

PENTLAND TRIATHLETES believe that everyone who participates in our club is entitled to do so in an enjoyable and safe environment. The welfare of our athletes is paramount. For this reason we take welfare very seriously. We believe that everyone participating in our club is entitled to a duty of care and to be protected from abuse, maltreatment or misconduct. We also recognise that we have a responsibility to ensure the highest standards possible in relation to welfare. Any member who has concerns around welfare issues relating to club activities is encouraged to contact the club Wellbeing Officer (mail@pentlandtriathletes.co.uk).

To meet our welfare responsibilities we will:

- Respect and promote the rights, wishes and feelings of people taking part in our club.
- Require our coaches and members to abide by Triathlon Scotland's Welfare Policy and Procedures and associated Codes of Conduct.
- Promote and implement appropriate policies and procedures to provide a duty of care for all people (including any vulnerable adults) within the club, to safeguard their well-being and protect them from abuse.
- Ensure our nominated welfare officer is up to date with the latest good practice training and guidance in relation to welfare issues.
- Follow good practice guidance in relation to recruitment, selection, training of our coaches, and officials.
- Regularly monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of our approach to welfare.
- Respond appropriately to any allegations of misconduct or abuse of any member in our club in line with our policy and procedures as well as implementing, where appropriate, the relevant disciplinary and appeals procedures.
